

GOING TO SEE DR. SEUSS' HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS! THE MUSICAL

I am going to go see Dr. Seuss' How The Grinch Stole Christmas! The Musical. A musical is a live play with singing, dancing, and music played by live musicians.

Here are some things I will see when I go to see the show:

The entrance to the theatre.

The theatre lobby.

The seats and the stage. The curtain is bright red.

Someone will welcome us with a speech from the stage before the show.

The lights change color and get brighter or darker during different parts of the show.

This is the Grinch with noisy Whos. The Whos are characters in the play. The Grinch doesn't like noise.

The Grinch gets tied up by Whos.

The Whos sing a song while shopping for presents.

The Who children are sleeping while their family gets ready for Christmas morning.

Cindy-Lou surprises The Grinch by being awake.

These are pretend houses with puppets. The puppets sing Christmas songs.

The Grinch surprises the audience.

The Whos love to sing about Christmas.

In the end, even The Grinch loves Christmas.
