PROCTORS 2025 LEGACY SOCIETY

"By being members of the Proctors Legacy Society, we are leaving a meaningful mark on a leader in the regional arts that aligns with our personal values. It's a way to add to the foundation built by earlier supporters, providing resources that continue beyond our lifetimes, reflecting our passion for the arts and enabling Proctors to thrive for years to come."

—Chet & Karen Opalka

"I joined the Proctors Legacy Society specifically because of the Collaborative School of the Arts. I strongly identify with its goals of helping children, regardless of income, to have the arts in their lives. Yes, it's wonderful to watch a performance on a world-class stage, but it's also about teaching the next generation the skills so they are able to perform on that stage. That is so empowering to kids from across the Capital Region."

—Betsy Sandberg
